Dear Ron, Please forgive the card. It's Tues. and I just rec'd your letter after noon chow. But I expect to be called out at any instant, and that's why a letter is impossible. At nite at ho we're off from 5:30 to 10, time is short, too. We have to eat chow, make our beds (at nite) clean our rifles, do our laundry if you want to keep clean, shower, brush our teeth & shave, and get a spiked up in O. D.'s to go down to the P. X. for a soda ova beer. So you see, by the time we're finished there's not much time for writing letters. We're on the 'go all the time. Consequently I can't promise any letter to Jack. I'm kept pretty busy writing mom, Dad & Joe. But don't forget, I'm damn glad to get your letters. Thanks a lot. Love, For.
