Dearest Frank:

VERY DEFINITELY & IRREVOCABLY
"SOMEWHERE" IN "GEORGIA"

My final resort is V-mail - in spite of the fact that I think it's stinky. But I find I'm having the same trouble with you as with Joe. Write, write, write, with no indication that my mail has ever started to reach you - so, of course, I don't hear from you. Damn discouraging, but I reckon the Pony Express will have to catch up with you soon. So am only taking this chance to say - let's try this V-mail for awhile; that way I can write you more often. Sure, we get together all this stuff! Incidentally, this is hardly an excuse for a letter, but will help to stuff your "mail call" for today... Your new (old) APO has me wondering - & I suppose they've pointed you from your Paris "pension" for a little corner in Rose Apple Orchard. Sorry, but I don't share your love for a "nap on the floor". I'll take my lower - Kora cot, mattress & all... Nothing new yet. Have just put a very interesting iron in the fire - but am afraid nothing will ever come of it... I've still waiting acquit from Miami & hoping for Chcca go again - you pleased it? He's in love (!) with Harold &, VERY CONFIDENTIALLY, says they consider themselves engaged - after 6 yrs!! Must be he told you. Kudos Allah!
