Dear Frank,

I spent a lot of time debating whether I should send a letter or only a card; as a result I haven't sent anything until now, and still only a card (obviously). Let me know if you'll be there when you are long enough to warrant a letter, but at least when you reach the permanent abode, inform me chop-chop and a letter will chop-chop be forthcoming. Your frequent attendance at "La Trine" interests me. Is it a salon or night-club or something with golden mines? Why, Frank, I'd like to think of it. Let me know when you commence to hate "or-mies", so I can say "I told you so" John C.
