

For Your Birthday

This is ME, MYSELF, and I
In conference, sure enough-- To figure some new angle
To this "Happy Birthday" stuff.

But while we tried and tried to think Of some new twist,
you see,

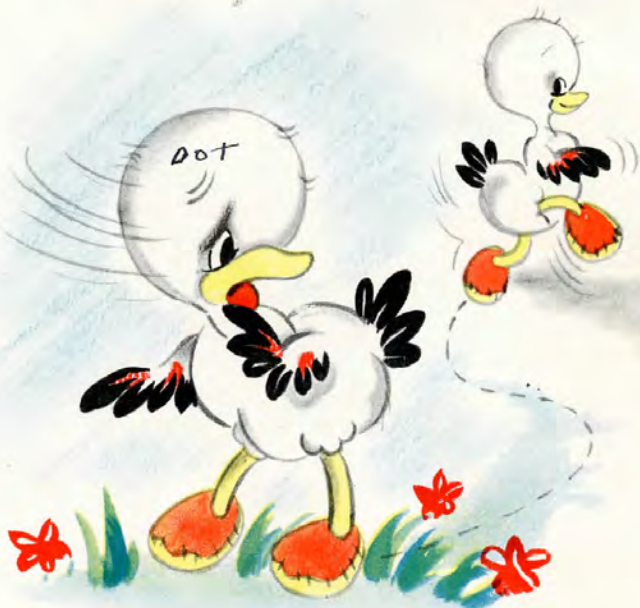

MYSELF gave up and went away
And left just I and ME.

The two of us
just worked and worked

And then (you might have known),

I got fed up with working, too
And left ME all alone.

So all this work was done by ME (The hard part anyway),

But ME, MYSELF, and I are wishing you

Love
Ronnie

See Fran. Its to bad your Birthday didn't come a couple of months sooner and you could have partied. I hope you have a Happy Birthday Fran. I gave mom five dollars to put in the bank for you. I thought this would be better.
But if you would rather have the five now, write and say so and I'll send it to you.

Love & prayers
Rennie
