

POLICEMAN'S SON, 3, IS KILLED BY TRUCK

Dennis Katz, three-year-old son of Patrolman Charles William Katz Sr., attached to the Bath Beach station in Brooklyn, was killed yesterday afternoon when struck by a delivery truck operated by Ralph Hanson of 29-16 21st Ave., Astoria, according to police.

Dennis and his brother, Robert, were standing at the curb near their house at 8702 3d Ave. when Hanson started the truck parked nearby, police said. Apparently a rear mudguard caught the boy and threw him forward under a rear wheel.
