

Eileen Moran and R. J. Rother Married

Miss Eileen Patricia Moran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn A. Moran of 1643 E. 37th St., was married to Richard John Rother, son of Mrs. Anthony C. Rother of St. Louis, yesterday in the Church of St. Thomas Aquinas. The Rev. John McKenna performed the ceremony and was celebrant of the nuptial mass.

Escorted by her father, the bride had Miss Marjorie Hearn as her maid of honor and the Misses Felicity Kazalski and Margaret Doyle as bridesmaids. Anthony C. Rother of St. Louis was best man for his brother and John F. Moran, brother of the bride, and John V. Moran Jr., cousin of the bride, were ushers.

The bride, who was recently discharged from the Waves, is a graduate of St. Francis Xavier Academy and the Berkeley School, Manhattan. Her husband, who served four years in the army medical corps during the war, attended St. Louis University. The couple will make their home in St. Louis.
