

"You shall find the Infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and laid in a manger."

ST. LUKE 2-12

May THE JOY OF Christmas
BE WITH YOU ALL THROUGH THE YEAR

FELICITY

12/25/44

Dear Frank -
 This is perhaps the only chance I'll have of dropping you a line before the W.A.E.S. take up my bid. I banks loads for your encouraging letter. Back Eileen and I appreciate your thought. Back fullness. It is true that we're not getting much encouragement on the home front there. so it's a "see you when you find someone" thing. I've been spending a great deal of time, energy and money in entertaining "border" (Dec. 28) and have received quite a lot of things good when you're sitting "most and being happy" and there are no sure will "keep you well" - what a progress "cause we're in luck about keep her "run down" with Lastly - may I just very pleasant Christmas you in my prayers
 at midnight mass
 as always
 JEL