Dear Frank

Thanks for the letter Frank. I was glad to receive it. The picture of Frank Snowmiller was good wasn't it. How about sending me a picture of your self. Here is one of me. You probably already have one, but here another. So your buying war Bonds! It ain't bad enough that you have to fight the war, now you want to pay for it too. Spend your money jerk, why save it, you won't live to spend it. Here I use the S.I. laundry. But it cost me more money for new clothes than it does to have them cleaned. They never send it all back to you. The usual percentage of return is about half. Yes I'd admit you is a good investment. I wish I had subscribed for it. But I'm busted again, so I'll have to wait till pay day. I've been living in town for the last 4 days & that cost plenty. Not only that. I've been renting a care every night & that cost anywhere from 10 to 20 dollars, according to how far you drive it. I finally got a letter from Feb. It was post marked March 30. It was sent to another Ad. & I just got it. The worst part of it is, I sold the watch. I'll have to buy another one pay day.

What do you mean, you ~~got~~ feel like you are cheating if you goldbrick. What the hell do you think you're in the Army for, you suppose to fuck the government every time you turn around. If you don't they'll give you the business. This is a battle of units.

Took Frank in regards to Pops letter. I wrote Pat & said I felt bad because you & she joined up & I knew Snow would worry more than ever, not only that but Pop would probably go off on a couple of benders, like he did when I left. Now if that's anything for Pat to send home, I'll kiss your Ass in no one's window. Where the hell are her brains, I only said it to put over my pain. I never meant anything by it. But it was the natural thing to think, don't you agree.

Hey who the hell do you think I met last night in town. John Darcey. Remember him. He lived on 92 St. We went to St. Pat's with him. He's in the finisance at Ft. Johnson.
It was sure swell to see him again. It must have been 7 or 8 years since I saw him last.
That scapular you sent me Frank. I wrote to Sup York & got the medal, its easier to wear. Well that's about everything. Bye now & write soon.

Love always
