Dear Jan

Another quackie, have to leave for Red Cross in 20 minutes. This is what I want to know - if you have all your outfit why haven't I received your civies. I bought a wardrobe to put them into.

Mrs Mac called up today to see if you had a permanent post so El could send you the Readers Digest. Mrs Mac says Ned Meldie leaves on the 6.30 tomorrow night (Wed) for Upton - he is Ruth's brother and El's cousin - Ruth worked in C.C. with Dot but is now in the Waves. He went to Villanova - try and look him up - Dot is down at Eleanor's now - spent all day today in bed getting ready for her trip to Georgia - This will be her last opportunity for the duration - to play in bed. I planned on having steak and mushrooms for Dot's last meal at home but I hear there is no steak to be bought.

I received this morning so went around to the Visitation - was looking around for John but didn't see him -

The "Chief" is still assing around the house. Guess he just don't feel like going back to work - Plan on going to Penn station tomorrow night with Dot and Eileen - that is if Iis let -

I got Joe's scarfs embroidered today - cost 2.00 but they look swell - That's how his money goes - 13.27 for scarfs - 2.00 for embroidery names - 15.27 - $0.00 that means no money in the bank for him this pay day.
Will have to say Bye now - it's late

Love from mother
